OLD POINT COMFORT, Va., Feb. 22.—The great American battleship fleet is again at home.
It was formally greeted today as it entered Hampton Roads by the president, the secretary of the navy and a distinguished party aboard the Mayflower, with all the elaborate pomp and circumstance that the naval regulations could provide.

Great Throings Cheer
Wildly cheered by enthusiastic thousands of men, women and children, packed aboard all sorts of water craft, gallily decorated for the occasion, and hoarsely welcomed by the shriek of whistles from steam vessels and factories in the vicinity, the sixteen magnificent warships with their "homecoming" pennants flying, jauntily pushed along a channel kept clear only with great difficulty by torpedo boats, and extending a distance of over eight miles from the Tail of the Horsehoe to the anchorage in front of the Chamberlain hotel, where other hundreds of excited humanity, mainly wives, relatives and friends of the 150,000 world voyagers, were banked in a solid phalanx, and held in rapt attention by the spectacle.

Fleet Fog-Hidden
A steady drizzling rain and heavy atmosphere cut all view of the approaching men of war, until they were within three miles of Old Point Comfort, abreast of which were the anchorage grounds. Only through

The President's Yacht, the Mayflower, And Dining Room on Yacht

ON THE MAYFLOWER

In the welcoming of the around-the-world fleet the president's yacht with its distinguished assembly of national figures formed a conspicuous part. As the Mayflower reviewed the fleet she was saluted by each in turn, and after the review the captains and officers of the ships were received on board the Mayflower at a luncheon tendered them.

It was on the Mayflower that the president delivered his address of welcome to Admiral Sperry and his staff this afternoon, and the yacht was the center of the day's ceremonial program.

PRESIDENT'S SPEECH TO THE OFFICERS

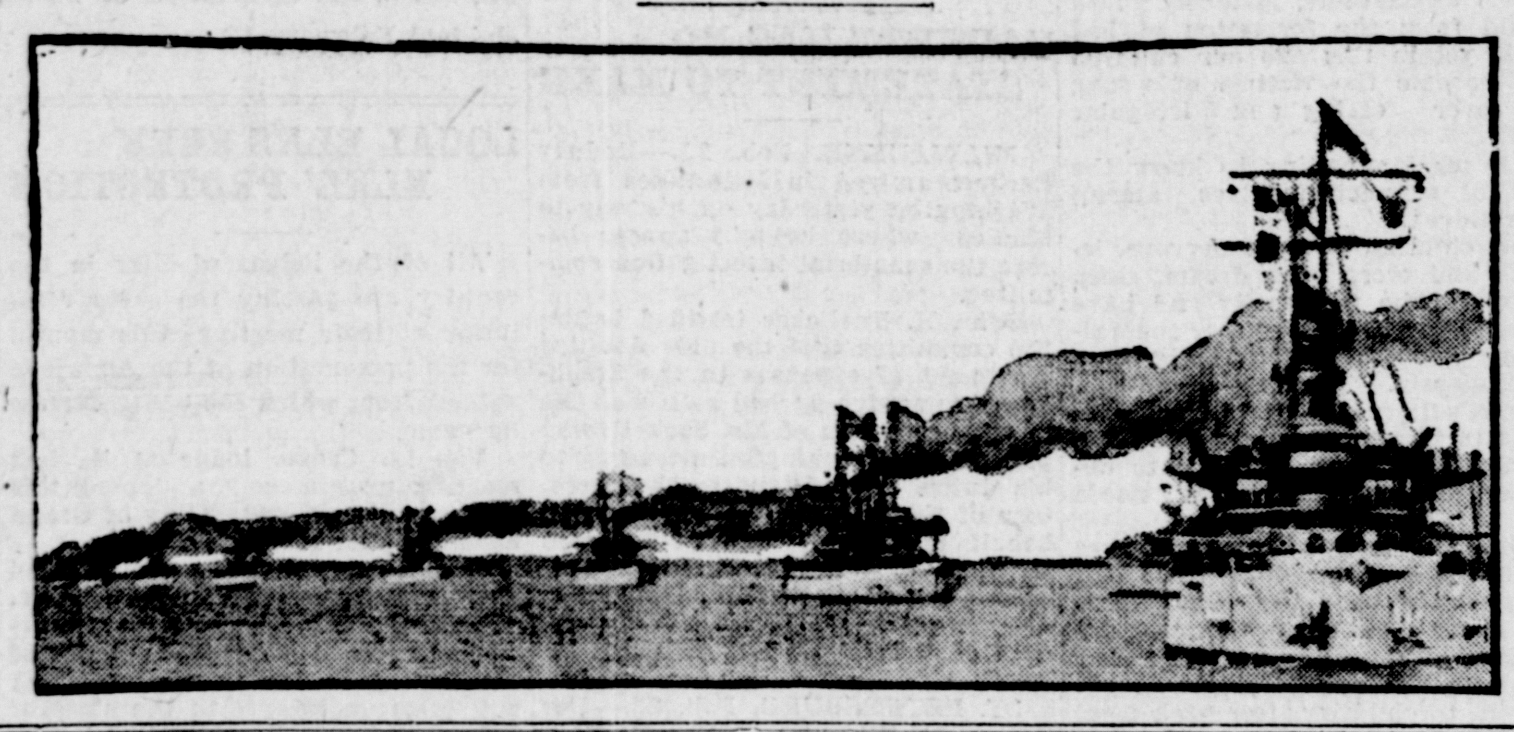

OLD POINT COMFORT, Va., Feb. 22.—President Roosevelt made the following address of welcome to the fleet this afternoon on board the Mayflower, when Admiral Sperry and his fleet commanders and captains made a call to pay their respects and later when the president visited the flagships of the fleet he repeated substantially the same words to the officers and men assembled on the vessels.

"Admiral Sperry, officers and men of the battleship fleet: Over a year has passed since you steamed out of this harbor, and over the world's rim, and this morning the hearts of all who saw you thrilled with pride as the hulls of the mighty warships lifted above the horizon. You have been in the northern and southern hemispheres; four times you have crossed the line; you have steamed through all the great oceans; you have touched the coast of every continent. Ever your general course has been westward; and now you come back to the port from which you set sail. This is the first battle fleet that has ever circumnavigated the globe. Those who perform the feat again can but follow in your footsteps.

"Incidentally I suppose I need hardly say that one measure of your fitness must be your clear recognition of the need always readily to strive to render yourselves more fit; if you ever grow to think that you are fit enough, you can make up your efficiency increased; better prepared than when you left, not only in personnel, but even in materials. During your westward cruise you have taken your regular gunnery practice and skilled though you were before with the guns, you have grown more skillful still; and through practice you have improved in battle tactics, though here there is more room for improvement than in your gunnery.

BATTERED GREEKS FLEE FROM OMAHA

ESCAPE FOLLOWING SERIOUS TROUBLE LAST NIGHT

SUNDAY RIOTS DISASTROUS

THIRTY HURT AND PROPERTY DAMAGE IS HEAVY

JAPS ARE IN DANGER, TOO

Authorities Closely Guard the Greek Quarter in Effort to Prevent Renewed Outbreak

OMAHA, Feb. 22.—Today was marked by a general exodus of Greeks from South Omaha following last night's riots during which 30 Greeks were more or less seriously injured and more than a score of houses of these foreigners wrecked or badly damaged. This afternoon the South Omaha Greek quarter was deserted excepting for a few foreigners who remained long enough to pack up. Those still remaining are under a strong guard of police and special deputy sheriffs. Some of the more hot headed Greeks this morning proposed a mass meeting of their own in Omaha to organize and march on South Omaha to get revenge. Cooler heads prevailed, however. Practically all the Greeks employed in the packing houses have disappeared.

South Omaha was comparatively quiet today though crowds still gathered on the street corner and discussed last night's doings excitedly. No further trouble is now looked for until tomorrow when the funeral of Edward Lowery the murdered policeman, will be held. Fearing another demonstration the police will have large squads on duty at the home and church and will make every effort to prevent an outbreak.

It developed today that a seven year old boy started the rioting. After the mass meeting he saw a crowd of Greeks talking on the street and having heard a man talk about mobbing the Greeks he threw a cinder. Immediately one of the Greeks chased him and the riot began.

The damage to Greek shops and houses in last night's rioting will total about $50,000.

Speeches Incite Riots

While the remote cause of the rioting was the murder Friday night of Policeman Edward Lowery by "Greek John" Masaredes, the race feeling was not aroused until after a mass meeting held yesterday afternoon at which speeches of the most inflammatory character were delivered. Representative Jerry Howard and Representative J. P. Krause, both of the legislature, were the principal speakers and they denounced the foreigners in unmeasured terms. This meeting was called following the circulation of a petition signed by several thousand of South Omaha citizens demanding that the city be rid of the Greeks.

Following the meeting, which was largely attended, nearly 2,000 persons immediately hurried to the Greek quarters and began the work

"FIGHTING BOB" EULOGIZES FLEET

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 22.—Admiral Robley D. Evans, "Fighting Bob"—who was in command when the battleship fleet sailed from Hampton Roads, "fit for a fight or a frolic," for its world tour, today in Minneapolis, gave to the United Press the following eulogy of the peace armada which reached home port today:

"Through all the ages of history there has never been another cruise like the one which has just been completed, and all America can feel gratified that this nation has shown the people of the world what the genius of its people is capable of accomplishing. All glory to the fleet and all glory to the country which made such a peace demonstration possible."

CRAZY WISCONSIN FARMER MURDERS FAMILY AND SELF

KILLS HIS STOCK AND BURNS HIS PROPERTY

BACK FROM CHURCH INSANE

HANS SVEUM OF STRUM TURNS A RAVING MANIAC

HACKS CHILDREN'S CORPSES

Chops Dying Cattle With Adz, Slashes His Own Throat and Hangs Self in His Burning Barn

ELEVA, Wis., Feb. 22.—Hans Sveum, a well to do farmer, living three miles from Strum, who two years ago spent a year or more in the Mendota state insane asylum, came home from church yesterday afternoon and between 4 and 6 o'clock, killed four children, cut them up with a knife, set fire to the house, killed 23 head of stock, chopped them up, stabbed himself, hung himself in the barn, set fire to that structure and died this morning.

He was well thought of in the community, owning 120 acres of land, although he was regarded by the neighbors as crazy. Other farmers who saw the flames of his burning house came to the barn and cut him down before he was dead. To them he told the story of his crime.

Four children, the oldest of whom was 16 years of age, were killed with a club as soon as he came from church. With a butcher knife, he fiendishly cut up the bodies and then set fire to the house.

His wife died several years ago. He then went to the barn and, according to his story to the rescuing neighbors, he in some manner poisoned all his stock, including two head of horses, 15 hogs and six head of cattle. He then hacked these animals with an ax in an inhuman frenzy. Then he turned the knife on himself and stabbed himself in the neck. Realizing that he had not aimed true he set fire to the barn and hanged himself from a rafter.

Neighbors had been attracted by the burning house and had arrived before the flames at the barn had gained headway. He has lived near the town of Strum all his life and has another daughter, aged 20, who was not at home when her father came from church.

Gold Dust

cleans and sterilizes

Baby's playthings should be kept sweet and clean.

Everything that his little hand can grasp goes right into his mouth.

And the rattle, the ball, the horn are tossed carelessly about the floor, to be again picked up and placed in the mouth of the unsuspecting infant.

A simple and effectual way to guard the baby's health is to frequently cleanse his toys with hot water and Gold Dust.

It is antiseptic and will kill any germs that may be on them.

C. COMISKEY BANKS ORGANIZED LEAGUE ON FIELDER JONES WITH SIX CLUBS

SOX PRESIDENT STILL HOPING FOR SAME MANAGER

DECIDE QUESTION THIS WEEK

"Commy" Expects His Veteran Outfielder to Join the Team at San Francisco on Training Trip

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—Is Fielder Jones to return to the White Sox as manager?

This question will be decided this week by President Chas. Comiskey, owner of the club, and Manager Jones, but from present indications the final decision will be that the White Sox will have a new leader in their fight this year for the American League flag.

Despite the reports from Portland that Jones is positive in his declaration that he has played his last game of major league baseball, President Comiskey last night declared he still expects Fielder Jones to join the club when it reaches San Francisco.

President Comiskey has declared right along he is banking on Jones as his manager and Fielder in turn has been firm in his statement that he has quit the game for good and all and will devote his time to his timber interests. The negotiations of the present week will decide whether the manager and the manager is to change his plans.

HARRY GILMORE HAS FIGHT IN VIEW

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—Announcement is made by Harry Gilmore, Jr., that he has matched his brother Freddie with Jimmy Clabby, the hard hitting Milwaukee boy, to fight before the Columbia Athletic club of Hammond, Ind., March 3. The boys will battle ten rounds at 140 pounds, weighing in at 30'clock in the afternoon.

Gilmore also announces that he has received an offer from the National A. C. New York, for a contest between Leach Cross and Packy McFarland, of whom Gilmore is manager. The Gotham club is willing to give McFarland $2,000 to meet Cross win, lose or draw. It is possible that Gilmore may accept.

MARDI GRAS SEES TWO RECORDS GO

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 22.—The feature of the second day of the Mardi Gras speed carnival was the lowering of two world's records.

Robert Burnham in a Buick car, set a new mark for 10 miles over a circular track, covering the distance in 1:42:39 2-5, this being over eleven minutes faster than the previous mark made by Clemens in Indianapolis in 1907.

Burnham kept the big crowd of 10,000 at a high pitch of excitement during the race, cutting the curves sharply, and showing wonderful daring.

The world's women's record for one mile on a circular track was broken by two and one-fifth seconds in the sixth race by Mrs. Joan Cuneo, her time being 1:00 1-5.

CALIFORNIA'S LAST DERBY RUN TODAY

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—What is perhaps the last California Derby and which this year has $5,000 added to the entry and starting fees, will be run this afternoon.

The best dopsters pick either High Private, the Forsyth entry, or Fitzherbert, from the Hildreth stable to romp home the winner. The Forsyth gelding will carry 119 pounds to Fitzherbert's 122.

Early in the day indications were that these two colts would be about even choices, with the rest of the field, which is small, righting it out for the "show" money.

J. Lee, the colored boy, will be up on High Private while Eddie Dugan pilot Fitzherbert. Lee's riding is considered about as variable as a March day, but with a god ride many believe that the Forsyth colt will return the winner.

"JOHNSON NOT MUCH" SAYS WILLUS BRITT

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—Before leaving for Grand Rapids today, where he will make final arrangements for a bout between Stanley Ketchel and Jack O'Brien, Willus Britt stopped to announce that he did not consider Jack Johnson "so much" and believed Ketchel could beat him if they ever meet.

"I don't think Jeffries will ever beat again," said Willus, "but I believe that Ketchel can surprise everybody by his showing against Johnson. If a good purse is offered we will be ready to grab it."

The Stomach of the Child

Is The Organ All Parents Should Protect and Keep Normal.

The stomach of a child is the organ above all others upon which the future of a child depends. Bodily development is fast in children, and the nourishment necessary to meet such development is the one essential demanded from a parent. Most mothers and fathers, jealously guard a child from the formation of bad habits, yet in this age our children early become the victims of wrong food, over eating and irregular meals.

It is most appalling to know the effect of stomach troubles among our children.

Most children who are nervous, irritable and cross, who dream, sleep restlessly, who tire easily and have no desire for child exercise, generally have stomach trouble, indigestion and dyspepsia.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are intended to thoroughly digest food and to place the system in shape to obtain all the nourishment it needs from such food.

These tablets mix with the juices of the system, enriching them and giving to the body the ingredients necessary to build up the rapidly forming brain and body of the young.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets should be given to children after each meal and at bed time. They are made from pure vegetable and fruit essences and contain no harmful chemicals whatever. The use of these tablets will give greater vim to a child in its school work or at its play. They will produce appetite and soothe nerves, destroy abdominal cravings and will allay the bad effects of sweets and such improper foods as most children enjoy and will eat no matter what is done to prevent it.

It is due the child that his stomach be protected by the parent, and if Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are given after meals, the habits of the child will not tear down the stomach and destroy the digestive juices nearly so rapidly. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are given to each and every degree of life. Any condition of the stomach welcomes them, from the strongest to the weakest. For sale by all druggists, price 50 cents. Send us your name and address today and we will mail you at once a trial package free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 159 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

HIGH SCHOOL IS MASTER OF PORTAGE

TAKES GAME SATURDAY BY 53 TO 13

VISITORS UNEQUAL TO LOCALS

Only in First Half Did They Have a Chance; Sparta is the Next Victim Scheduled

La Crosse high school, 53; Portage, 13. Sparta is next.

The La Crosse high school basketball team took the championship aspirations out of the Portage aggregation Saturday evening when the latter went down to defeat at the hands of the local boys by the overwhelming score of 53 to 13. Only in the first part of the first half did the visitors display form equal to that of the home five but this was short lived and after the local team had taken a spurt at this point of the game the fighting blood seemed to be taken out of the Portage boys, the game from this point on being a walk away. Considering the fact that Walker, the regular guard of the team, was out of the game with a sprained wrist and a general shift of positions was necessary to patch up the team, the work of the boys was very gratifying to the local enthusiasts and with all the men back in their regular positions by next Friday evening when the Sparta five plays here La Crosse patrons of the game are confident of a victory. The playing of Dickens, regular forward on the team, but playing in a new position on account of the absence of Walker, was the feature of the game. During the last half 16 points were made by him alone.

The two teams lined up as follows: Portage—Abel, center, Elstein and Winke, guards; Rhyme and Nemard, forwards; Joyce, substitute.

La Crosse High School—Roddy, center; Tourtelotte and Dickens, guards; Werner and Bradish, forwards.

CLOSE WEST CARS AT 6 P. M. HEREAFTER

A change in the westbound freight service on the Northwestern road which will greatly facilitate shipping from La Crosse and place La Crosse shippers on an equal footing with the Winona wholesalers and jobbers has been made and the change will be much appreciated by the local distributors.

One distribution car for the west has been the schedule hitherto. This car has always been closed at noon making it impossible for local shipments left at the freight office after that time to be handled until the next day. Henceforth the car will be closed at 6 o'clock in the evening and will be taken directly to the junction and to Winona leaving there early the next morning. This arrangement will give the towns west of Winona a much better service from this city.

E. M. Hyzer, on behalf of Senator Stephenson, said Mr. Sackett would return and appear before the committee.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 22.—For the second time since his coronation, Czar Nicholas marched on foot through his own capital through heavy snow that made progress difficult, in order to pay proper respect to his uncle, the Grand Duke Vladimir.

The casket was on a gun carriage while the czar walked directly behind it. He was clothed in the uniform of a general, but wore none of his orders.

NEGLIGENCE BILLS BEFORE THE SOLONS

IMPORTANT LEGISLATION OF RECENT SESSIONS

INGALLS MAKES STATEMENT

Has Bills Providing For Recovery of Damage When Employer Has Been Negligent

(By Fred L. Holmes)

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 22.—(Special.)—Assemblyman Ingalls of Racine declares that the bills pending before the legislature this year relating to negligence are the most advanced of any in recent years. He has introduced bills in the assembly for comparative negligence, so that if the master is more negligent than the employee, the employee may be able to recover damages in case of accident. At the present time if the employee is at all negligent he cannot recover damages in an accident.

"Legislation has been proposed at this session which is in advance of anything which has been considered by any previous legislature, on the subject of the employers' liability in negligence cases," said Mr. Ingalls last night. Several measures have been introduced along this line, and if enacted into law the effect will be to destroy all defense in accident cases arising out of the negligence of co-employees; in other words, an injured person will be entitled to recover if the master's negligence is established, irrespective of the fact that the injury may not occasioned in part by the negligence of co-employees.

"Another change of the system of jurisprudence in this field is that the question of contributory negligence shall be submitted to the jury by the court, and always be a question of fact. In so far as this can be done legally, the measures introduced seem to cover.

"Also included in one of the bills introduced is the proposition of comparative negligence, and is to the effect that it shall be left to the jury to say, in personal injury cases, whether the negligence of the injured party is greater or less comparatively than that of the employer or master; and these shall be questions for the jury; and notwithstanding that the jury may find that the employee has been negligent, if his carelessness is of a lesser degree than that of the master he may still recover. This is the system now upon the statute books with reference to injuries to railway employees and it is patterned much after the railway law now in force in Wisconsin, and instead of limiting this comparative feature to any particular class of employees, such as railways, it includes all classes, in all employments.

"Another measure which has been introduced is that affecting special verdicts. It is proposed by this bill to limit the questions which may be submitted to a jury, in a personal injury case, in so far as the negligence feature of such cases is concerned, and the limitation is to three questions: First, the question of the negligence of the employer; and second, the question of contributory negligence; and, third, the question of damages.

"Another change in the law as proposed is, requiring additional safeguards upon certain machinery, and also requiring automatic gates on elevators in factories; and also, amending the law to the effect that the mere knowledge of a workman that the master has failed to comply with the requirements of the statutes, and has failed to furnish reasonably safe tools and appliances, shall not be a defense."

BRYAN LEAVES HIS INFLUENCE ON BILL

DENVER, Colo., Feb. 22.—Though Wm. J. Bryan has returned to Lincoln after delivering an address before the legislature, his influence will be felt in the assembly for several days.

Mr. Bryan stated his position regarding the direct primary bill now pending but was unable to bring together the contending factions of the democratic party. He left a letter with Representative Hicks, however, with instructions to make it public only if it seemed absolutely necessary in order to bring harmony on the bill.

SLAYER OF SENATOR CARMACK GRILLED

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 22.—Badgered at every point and forced to recite again all of the details he described on Saturday under a merciless and pitiless cross examination at the hands of Attorney General Jeff McMinn and his assistant Robin Cooper, the admitted slayer of former Senator E. W. Carmack, passed through the hardest ordeal of his life today.

His cross-examination is expected to occupy the entire day.

STREET FIGHT IN CHICAGO FATAL

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—One was shot and instantly killed and another fatally wounded by a policeman while they were resisting arrest in a street fight early today.

The dead man is James Flash, 20 years of age. Frank Havle, 28 years of age, the man who is alleged to have killed him, was shot and fatally wounded by Policeman John Stanton of the new city station while he was trying to escape.

A crowd, of which Flash was a member, came upon Havle and pushed him onto the street.

Havle struck one of the men and then the rest of them rushed at him. Drawing a revolver, it is alleged, he fired a shot through Flash's heart. Firing into the throng Havle turned and fled just as Policeman Stanton appeared.

Stanton ordered the fugitive to halt. The man continued running, and Stanton fired two shots. The first grazed the man's head and then, aiming lower, Stanton fired the second shot. The bullet struck the man in the side and he fell to the sidewalk.

TAFT SPEAKS AT PENN UNIVERSITY

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 22.—In an address, historical and commemorative of the services of the father of his country, President-elect W. H. Taft spoke for nearly an hour at the Washington birthday celebration of the university of Pennsylvania here shortly before noon.

The distinguished visitor was greeted by an immense crowd.

Little time for leisure was allowed the distinguished visitor when his schedule for the day was mapped out by his entertainers. He was escorted to the academy by the first city troop, in brilliant uniform, and following his address, was escorted to the troops' armory where he was the guest at a luncheon.

Mr. Taft will be the guest of honor at the annual dinner of the university alumni at Wightman hall tonight.

He leaves for Washington tomorrow.

VISIT HAMMOND CHUTE FOR REPAIRS

A visit by the board of public works and the city engineer to the dam at Hammond Chute and the dykes along the marshes in the vicinity convinced them immediate action should be taken in repairing the breaks in the dam and dykes. It is the opinion that the work could be done at less expense now as the brush in vicinity could be cut and hauled there before the spring breakup.

High water will increase the size of the breaks and repairing and reinforcing them now would mean a saving of considerable money.

The same committee will again go over the ground today or tomorrow.

It greatly surprises young people to learn that any one hates them. It is an equal surprise to the old to be told that any one likes them.

WASHINGTON IS HONORED TODAY

FLAGS AND BUNTING IN EVIDENCE HERE

SCHOOLS AND BANKS CLOSE

Public Buildings are Also Locked for the Day; Day Observed in Other Cities

Flags and bunting and social events in La Crosse today are in evidence in honor of Washington's birthday. The banks, schools, public buildings and most factories are closed. The postoffice was open until 10 a. m., and the usual holiday collection and delivery of mail was made.

There is no special celebration being here, although there are numerous Washington teas and similar social events in memory of the first president.

One Way of Viewing It

"I like February better than any other month in the year." "You've got your judgment. For my part I would rather have June when the grass is green, the trees are full of leaves, the birds sing, you hear the hum of the lawn mower, see people idling around in the shade when nature—"

"Aw, cut it out. Don't you know that February is the shortest month and has more holidays in it than any other?"

This dialogue took place in the court house this morning but the speakers were to intent on getting to their homes to enjoy the day off to stop for any further argument.

The offices in the court house are all closed today. Nothing is being done in either the county or circuit courts as all are at home celebrating the birthday of George Washington.

Chicago Observes Day

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—The flags and bunting which but a week ago decorated all public buildings in Chicago in honor of the birthday of Lincoln are again in evidence today in honor of George Washington. All business is practically suspended, the day being given over to honoring the first president.

The principal events of the day will be three big meetings at which prominent public men will make addresses. At 10:30 this morning Gov. John Franklin Fort, of New Jersey, will make an address at the Auditorium theater. A second meeting will be held this afternoon at which Gov. Fort will again speak, and Wm. Dudley Foulke, of Indiana, will make

Dr. Pierce's Health Talks

The miracle of motherhood is often overshadowed by the misery of motherhood. The great functional changes which are incident to child bearing leave their mark for life on many a mother. Some women offer up their lives as a sacrifice on the altar of motherhood. A far greater number live on in ceaseless misery. Their strength fails, their beauty fades, they have no ambition and no enjoyment in life. To every woman

Harriman has been prosecuting a claim before the senate committee for the return of about $2,000,000 expended by the Southern Pacific Railway company in responding to President Roosevelt's appeal that the road should take immediate steps to stop the breaks in the banks so as to control the floods. The senate committee has been unable to come to a conclusion on the subject and has now decided that it is too late in the session to attempt to secure the passage of a bill.

STARTED "LIVE LIKE CHRIST" MOVEMENT

REV. W. B. WALLACE

W. D. PRICE

A month ago, William D. Price, a law student in Western Reserve university at Cleveland, suggested to his pastor, Dr. W. B. Wallace, that it would be a good idea for the young people's society to try the experiment of living two weeks as Jesus would live. Rev. Wallace grew enthusiastic—within a few days, through his efforts, it had been arranged that the Cleveland Baptist Young People's union, the Christian Endeavor and the Epworth league—11,000 strong—would begin the experiments.

INDIGESTION GOES IN FIVE MINUTES

IF YOU HAD SOME NOW STOMACH MISERY WOULD VANISH

DIAPEPSIN IS SPLENDID

It Seems Strange That You Will Continue a Stomach Sufferer, When Certain Relief Is So Handy.

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from Indigestion and Stomach trouble is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking Diapepsin.

If your Stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak Stomachs should eat Diapepsin after meals, and there will be no more Indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, Sour risings, Gas on Stomach or Belching of undigested food, Headaches, Dizziness or Vomiting, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved five minutes after eating one Triangle of Diapepsin.

Go to your drugist and get a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

LECTURER COMES HERE TOMORROW

Charles M. Ellingwood of Chicago, a lecturer of prominence, will be in the city this week, having been brought here by the Y. M. C. A. to give a series of lectures.

These lectures aim to present what the Bible urges as to the duty of soul-winning, and the best methods of using the Word in actual personal work.

The course takes up first the general subject of personal work—its aim, duty, equipment, method, etc. As the aim of all personal work is conversion, the course then considers the successive steps in conversion: Conviction, repentance, faith, forgiveness, the new birth, and abiding—or the best ways to help converts remain steadfast and develop Christian character.

The practical result sought in this course is to persuade as many as possible to consecrate themselves definitely to personal work and to form one or more personal work bands, which shall meet frequently, have a prayer list, and carry on a persistent, aggressive, and all-the-year-round soul-winning work.

The course lasts one week, and closes with an address at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon meeting on "The Young Man and His Strength."

Tuesday at 7:30 he will speak at the Y. M. C. A. to young men; Wednesday a union prayer meeting at the First M. E. church; Thursday at a union assembly at the North Side M. E. church; Friday he will speak at the Y. M. C. A. again and Saturday evening has not yet been assigned. He will close Sunday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. men's meeting.

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE

It is a generally recognized truth that medicines made from vegetable ingredients are a great deal better adapted to the delicate human system, and safer in every way, than those composed of strong mineral mixtures and compounds. Mercury, potash, arsenic, etc., which are used in the manufacture of most blood medicines, are too violent in their action, and frequently derange the system by disturbing the stomach and digestion, affecting the bowels, and when used for a prolonged period often cause Rheumatism. S. S. S. is the only blood medicine guaranteed absolutely and purely vegetable. It is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, selected for their purifying and healing qualities. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison, and all other blood diseases, because it cleanses and purifies the blood, and at the same time builds up the entire system by its fine vegetable tonic effects. S. S. S. may be taken by young and old with absolute safety, and with the assurance that it will cure the diseases and disorders due to an impure and poisoned blood supply, even reaching down and removing hereditary taints. YOU CAN HAVE A Healthy Stomach WITH Kodol

In fact, it is easier than having an unhealthy one, without Kodol—for sometimes the stomach will keep healthy, if you take a little Kodol occasionally. But by doing just this, Kodol at once relieves indigestion and all the aggravating symptoms—and prevents dyspepsia. It accomplishes this just as surely as the law of "cause and effect."

SEVEN KILLED IN PASSENGER WRECK

TRAIN SMASHES INTO TWO LOCOMOTIVES

DEAD ARE ALL EMPLOYEES

Princess Trixie, Famous Trick Horse, and Mainstay of Opera Company, Killed in Crash

DELMAR, Del., Feb. 22.—With its coaches filled with passengers on their way to Norfolk to witness the homecoming of the battleship fleet, the first section of Pennsylvania passenger train No. 49 southbound, early today collided with two locomotives in the yards here, immediately following the collision a combination baggage and mail car and a baggage car of the train caught fire.

Seven bodies have been recovered and another is believed to be still in the wreck.

The known dead are:
J. D. McCreedy, Wilmington, Del., baggage master.

Oliver Perry, Philadelphia, express messenger.

W. B. Cochrane, Philadelphia, mail clerk.

J. W. Wood, Wilmington, Del., mail clerk.

R. M. Davis, Maryland, Del., mail clerk.

F. L. Wilhelm, Wilmington, Del., mail clerk.

The passengers were severely shaken up, many being tossed from the seats and slightly injured.

Two passengers were slightly injured, one of whom is Miss Sophia Ashansapios of Memphis, Tenn., hurt about the shoulders.

Princess Trixie, the famous educated trick horse, belonging to the Princess Trixie theatrical company, was killed. The groom, Lewis Brockway, riding in one of the baggage cars, with his charge, was injured internally and removed to the Salisbury hospital.

Traffic was delayed an hour and a half.

Thousands Gather To Cheer Fleet

the echo of saluting cannon were the waiting ones apprised of the armada's approach.

It was one hour from the time Admiral Sperry saluted the flag of the commander in chief that the folks at this place sighted the blue flag of the Connecticut through the fog and rain.

This was the signal for the answered guns ashore, and at high noon the first sullen boom opened the welcome of those who had come, not because official duties demanded, but because they loved the flag, the fleet and the men who had gone around the world and had come home safe again.

At Anchor

This afternoon the monster warships were tugging lazily at their anchor chains on the spot they started from over a year ago, seemingly well content to receive the plaudits of the nation for their world-breaking girdle of the globe and awaiting the visit of their chief executive to tender his personal congratulations on their accomplishment. Spick and span, as ready now as a year ago for "a fight or frolic," as "Bob" Evans put it, they swung into the great naval playground of the nation.

A Thunderous Salute

It was a wondrous and thunderous announcement given of the homecoming when the Connecticut, the flagship of Admiral Sperry, sighted the Mayflower, which had taken its anchor age at the exact spot from which the president had bid the ships farewell on their outward voyage. A salute began that did not conclude until the last ship had passed the president's boat.

Twenty-one guns, fired from each one of the sixteen ships, and so timed that before one ship ceased firing the next took up the salute, fairly made the heavens roar, while from the distance came the thunderings from the big squadron of Admiral Arnold that had steamed out to act as an escort until the fleet was near the spot set for the formal reception.

President Reviews Fleet

President Roosevelt reviewed the ships with a critical, but pleased, eye, as the long line steamed gracefully by.

Before each ship neared the Mayflower, while the guns were belching out their discordant greeting, the rails were manned by blue jackets, who stood side by side, each one with his hand resting upon the shoulder of his companion, and facing the president's yacht. The officers paraded in special dress and the marine guard that may appear no more on the warships unless congress finally legislates, as it threatens, to remove the existing executive order, presented arms while the band played the "Star Spangled Banner."

Glass and Tile

With binoculars in one hand, which he frequently used and his top hat in the other, which he almost constantly waved in the air, the president apparently enjoyed the spectacle to the utmost.

As the last ship passed the Mayflower fell in behind and in schedule time passed between the lines made by their formation at anchorage in front of the Chamberlain hotel.

The president received the Admirals and flag officers of each ship on board the Mayflower at 2 o'clock this afternoon and warmly congratulated the commanding officers and through them the men for their wonderful accomplishment.

Following this the president and

CURES CATARRH

O. T. Erhart Will Furnish the Medicine Free in Every Case Where They Fail To Cure Catarrh.

We have a medicine made from the prescription of one of the most successful catarrh specialists known. This medicine has a record of 98% of cures, and we believe it is positively without an equal. We are so satisfied that we are right, that we will supply the medicine free in every instance where it is used according to directions for a reasonable length of time and fails to cure and give satisfaction in every particular. We want everyone in La Crosse to try this medicine at our risk. There are no conditions or formality attached to our offer. We put the user under no obligation to us whatever.

The medicine we want you to try is Rexal Mucu-Tone. It is a catarrh remedy that goes direct to the seat of trouble. It is carried by the blood to every part of the system. It seeks out and destroys the germs or parasites which cause Catarrh. It purifies and enriches the blood, tones up the mucous cells, soothes and heals the tissues that were ravaged by the catarrhal parasite, and brings about a condition of health and strength that prevents the germs of consumption from ever getting a start. Besides this, Rexal Mucu-Tone is a wonderful appetizer, digestive aid and flesh builder. Its good effects are felt from the very first dose. It is one of the largest and most satisfactory selling medicines that we have ever had anything to do with.

We know so much of the great good that it has done that we personally back it up with our reputation and money, which fact should be ample guarantee to satisfy anybody.

Rexal Mucu-Tone comes in two sizes 50c and $1.00. We urge you to try it. O. T. Erhart, 421 Main street.

secretary of the navy visited each flagship and in like vein, the president addressed the flag officers and chosen representatives of each ship assembled for the particular purpose.

A Drizzle Falling

The air was a trifle thick this morning with a slight drizzle falling. The temperature at 10 o'clock was 55.

Rear Admiral Bronson, as officer of the bureau who formulated the original plans for sending the great fleet around the world, but who was prevented from directing its further course by his sensational difficulties with President Roosevelt over the hospital ships, shortly after the fleet sailed away, was one of the most striking of the many distinguished visitors. He was here in his private capacity.

Craft Sails Out

Although the day opened with a dense fog at sea that caused forebodings from naval men as well as sightseers, the outlook did not deter the water craft from getting into action early and by 8:30 this morning several newspapers and pleasure boats, loaded to the gunwales, rushed to meet the Mayflower and the fleet.

The latter, which had been "marking time" all night off Cape Henry, restless to get into action, received the order "go ahead" early in the morning from Admiral Sperry's flagship. Before the Mayflower was sighted, the ships were ordered into single column. It required an hour and a half for them all to pass the president's yacht.

Crowd is Eager

The feeling as the naval pageant spread before the eyes of thousands about Hampton Roads, there was through it all a feeling of nervous impatience for many of those who gazed upon the scene. This was because of the fact that although the vessels steamed by before the morning had waned, it was not until nearly six o'clock that the friends and families of those on board would have an opportunity to clasp loved ones in their arms.

Through all the formality of the national salutes, the review proper; the winding in and out of the president's yacht among the bristling battleships, wives, mothers and sweethearts were counting the moments when the naval etiquette would be over and "my boy" might come ashore.

Naturally no one could leave the big battleship until the Mayflower had sailed away to Washington at 5 o'clock.

A Wedding Quick

There is to be at least one wedding as soon as the men can come ashore tonight and over this romantic side-light there has been not a little flutter of excitement today.

The expectant bride is Miss Gladys

Haile of Jacksonville, Fla., who now is one of the most impatient ones whirling about the hours at the Chamberlain. The prospective groom is Midshipman Alfred J. Martin, who is aboard the flagship Connecticut. He is a native of Montana. The idea of having the marriage immediately upon the return of the fleet developed by correspondence. The ceremony, which will take place at the chapel within the fort tonight, will perhaps be the first of a number that will follow the return of the fleet. Midshipman Martin has applied for leave of absence for a honeymoon.

A History Making Cruise

The successful completion of the cruise without noteworthy accident or untoward incident, from either a naval or political point of view, is regarded by all nations as history-making. Never before has any battle command made such a long and practically continuous voyage. Never before has any fleet circumnavigated the globe, whether in one or separate voyages. Never before has any armada of any of the countries of the world visited so many ports, at such great distances, in so many countries, and under so many flags.

And never has any naval command received with such universal manifestations of friendly feeling, as marked the progress of the American fleet at every one of its two-score stops on the cruise around the world.

Starting out from Hampton Roads fourteen months ago in the pink of condition, or, in their spotless white and buff, more properly speaking—the sixteen great dogs of war stood ready at every moment of the twenty-four hours of every day for prompt and effective action.

"We were ready for a fight or frolic," said Rear Admiral "Fighting Bob" Evans when he surrendered the command of his fleet to the Rear Admiral next in rank, "and God be thanked that we had none of the fighting to do." Although there was no fighting, still it was not a continuous frolic, for there was much work to do constantly in the way of accomplishing the stated primary object of the cruise—to increase the general cruising and team efficiency of the ships and as one solid command.

No Fight Expected

Truth is, no fight was expected, so there has been no disappointment on this score. The work was expected so there has been no cry of undue hardship. But there were several very important things accomplished by the fleet on its cruise which were not anticipated. Whether there was a political mission to be fulfilled, either in the far east, Europe or elsewhere, does not concern the navy—that comes under the head of "foreign relations" or "international diplomacy." But it was a source of great comfort to the navy as a fighting arm of the government to know that the fleet, on a peaceful errand, was able to render more assistance than could have been given by any other country to the stricken people of Sicily in the recent earthquake disaster.

It was also a matter of pride to the government that a portion of the fleet was able to visit China at the time the Boxer indemnity was remitted by the United States. Incidentally, it may be remarked that after discussing the question of a declaration of principles with the United States as to the attitude of this country and Japan toward China and in the Pacific, the agents of the Mercado were in a more agreeable frame of mind for affixing their signatures to the document, after the visit of the fleet to Japan.

An Object Lesson

Aside from this, all nations had opportunity properly to estimate the military importance of the United States on the seas, with the result that the general international respect for this country went up on the world's market several points. Also, it is of no small moment that the new Turkish government was inspired with a greater and deeper regard for the American navy, and that as a result the sultan sent a number of officers including a direct heir to the throne on the fleet to the United States, to study the battleships, American seamanship and the navy organization on shore. And not without some importance was the visit of a sub-command of the fleet to Morocco to salute the flag of the new ruler of that country and formally to recognize his government in behalf of the United States.

After having cruised 40,000 miles, with little or no repairs to the ships during all this time, Admiral Sperry was proud to report to the navy department from Gibraltar that the entire command could go, intact, halt that distance again without a single vessel necessarily being sent to dock, unless, of course, the unforeseen should happen. Even naval experts, who have carefully studied all of the reports of Admiral Evans, who took the fleet around the horn to San Francisco, and of Admiral Sperry, who brought it home, are at a loss as to how to measure accurately the real value of the great cruise from a naval or military point of view.

Discipline Good.

A remarkable feature of the cruise was the excellent discipline. Although there were a few desertions, the number was far less in proportion than it usually is in home ports. The extent of drinking on the part of men and officers at receptions and

Intimates Congressmen are Permitted to Succeed Only When They Dance to "Big Guns" Fiddle

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 22.—Another chapter was added to Panama canal history today by congressman Rainey (Dem. Ill.) who spoke for an hour in the house of representatives. His speech was in answer to the attacks that have been made upon him since his first assault upon the Panama forces.

It was easy for a congressman to succeed, he said, if he was willing to refrain from antagonizing great corporations or men of great wealth. If he discovered and denounced gross improprieties affecting the administration and men in high positions, he might expect to be vilified, abused and misrepresented.

"You are at liberty," said Rainey, "to shoot as much as you would like to shoot, providing you do not hit the mark. I made the mistake of hitting the mark."

"It is the grossest misrepresentation from whatever source it may come, to say that I have ever placed myself in opposition to the Panama Canal. I simply called attention to certain evidence of graft in connection with corporations there. I am as good a friend of the project as the president has ever been."

minds that from that moment you will begin to go backward.

"As a war machine, the fleet comes back in better shape than it went out, in addition you, the officers and men of this formidable fighting force, have shown yourselves the best of all possible ambassadors and heralds of peace. Wherever you have landed, you have borne yourselves so as to make up at home proud of being your countrymen. You have shown that the best type of fighting man of the sea knows how to appear to the utmost advantage when he is business is to behave himself on shore and to make a good impression in a foreign land. We are proud of all the ships and all the men in this whole fleet and we welcome you home to the country whose god repute among nations has been raised by what you have done."

while on liberty in strange and peculiarly interesting places was far less than was expected. It can not be denied that the strain of the long cruise, in fair weather and bad, and with tedious vigils before the bridge was a severe test. Many of the men and several of the officers succumbed to temptation, and paid the penalty. But the number of court-martials on the whole has been scarcely more than might have been expected had the world voyage not been undertaken. On charges involving intoxication, conduct unbecoming a gentleman, etc., there were fourteen trials and twelve convictions, from the time the fleet left Hampton Roads to its arrival at Gibraltar. The last and most notable of all of these cases was that of Quailtrough, the Georgia's captain.

OTTUMWA RACE WAR DANGER PAST

OTTUMWA, Iowa, Feb. 22.—The police and county authorities today believe a race war against the negroes of the city which was imminent last night has passed, at least temporarily. Early today there was no sign of a gathering of the mob of 1,000 persons who last night surrounded the jail and threatened violence to six negroes arrested on suspicion of connection with an assault on Mrs. Chas. M. Johnson, an invalid.

Immediately after the attack on the woman early yesterday morning, armed posses traced the negro assailant to a ravine outside of town, where the trail was lost.

INDEPENDENTS BUT MEET REDUCTIONS

WILL NOT UNDERTAKE TO GO UNDER STEEL TRUST

REVIVAL IN RY. BUILDING

General Construction Work Will Experience a Boom Resultant Upon War on Steel Prices

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—Though the price cutting war between the steel trust and the independents is not expected to begin in earnest until tomorrow owing to today being a holiday the steel trust subsidiaries are beginning to announce their reduction.

The Inland Steel Co., supposed to be a subsidiary of the United States Steel corporation today announced a price of $13.8 a base for steel bars and $14.48 a base for structural iron. These are the only two reductions announced so far. Others are expected by this concern when the complete new schedule of prices is issued by the headquarters in New York.

Independent steel concerns do not propose to undersell the reduced prices of the trust according to a statement today but merely announce that these lower prices will be met. Whether lower prices still will be offered by the independents later is problematical and depends largely on what further action the steel trust takes.

Steel men here stated today that they expect the price reductions to mean the beginning of a great revival of railroad and building construction.

It was stated that inquiries along this line are pouring into the offices of the steel company asking for the new prices on railroad and structural steel.

of pillage. The mob divided into three sections and attacked three different Greek houses or shops simultaneously and the work of destruction was completed almost before the police could interfere.

Raid Lasts Three Hours

The first raid lasted for three hours and then the small South Omaha police force succeeded in getting a semblance of order. In the meantime, the Omaha police department had been asked to send aid but had declined to do so. Sheriff Brailly of Douglas county, however, sent a force of deputies to assist the South Omaha police in their fight to preserve peace.

Intermittent attacks on the Greek houses continued during the night until midnight, however, and the police and deputies patrolled the quarters in automobiles, dispersing the mobs rapidly.

Though firearms were not generally used by the members of the mob most of them were armed with axes and clubs and these they used without stint on the helpless Greeks. During the height of the rioting Greeks were beaten or clubbed without pity.

In the excitement several Italians and Roumanians were mistaken for Greeks and were badly beaten.

Today every undestroyed building owned or occupied by Greeks is surrounded by a cordon of police. An order, issued by the fire and police board, closing all saloons until further notice, was put rigidly into effect today. The fact that Washington's birthday is observed as a holiday in many business houses in South Omaha, is pointed out as a dangerous sign. This will leave large numbers of men idle.

The outbreak is the climax of a feeling that has been growing for some time, not only against the Greeks but also the Japanese, many of whom are employed in the packing houses at South Omaha.

Recently Representative Howard, one of the speakers at yesterday's meeting, introduced a bill in the legislature designed to prevent Japanese from working at the side of American women. The bill was laughed at the time, but the police feeling may also be directed against the Japanese.

The fire and police commissioners today issued a statement placing the direct responsibility for the rioting on the mass meeting held yesterday afternoon at which speeches were made, which, it is charged, incited the populace to riot.

A general survey of the situation this morning disclosed that firms were used more freely than was at first supposed. About 30 persons are suffering from wounds, and half a dozen of them are in serious condition. Five of the victims were shot and a dozen others badly beaten with clubs and like weapons.

This survey also disclosed the following general damage, three bakeries owned by Abe Corcoris completely wrecked, confectionery store of Demos Bros. destroyed and show cases soda fountains, etc., smashed; two Greek hotels badly damaged and one destroyed by fire, one saloon demolished and the homes of 15 Greeks wrecked.

A danger signal was given the authorities today when it became known that practically all the Greeks in town have armed themselves with revolvers and are prepared to defend themselves in case of another attack.

The feeling of the women of South Omaha was also clearly shown when it became known that scores of them had participated in last night's rioting and had urged the men to greater deeds of violence.

SOME OPPOSITION TO 6-CLUB LEAGUE

WILL SUCCEED UNDER ORGANIZED PROTECTION

PLAYERS ALREADY SIGNED

President Rooney Back from St. Paul meeting, While Elliott is Organizing Superior

There was considerable opposition to a 6-club league composed of Duluth, Superior, Wausau, Eau Claire, and La Crosse which was organized at the Ryan hotel yesterday. A number of the members were in favor of an independent league including Minneapolis and St. Paul but this opposition was easily quieted when John Elliott pointed out the new difficulties that would attend such an arrangement. As was expected and elsewhere announced Mr. Elliott was elected president and secretary, A. W. Kuehnow of Duluth, vice president and John A. Borth of Winona, treasurer. The salary limit was placed at $1200 exclusive of the manager and the season will open between the 12th and 15th of May.

The local organization will immediately start action and all the preliminary work of the team will be started at once. John Elliott left for Superior from St. Paul yesterday and a mass meeting will be held there tonight and an organization will be effected. Superior is the only club on the circuit that was opposed to the 6-club league, but it is thought that this objection will be easily overcome when the situation is explained.

President Rooney of the La Crosse club, who returned last night from St. Paul, stated that everything was a success. "The 6-club league is the most reasonable plan that we could have agreed upon," he said, "while the 8-club circuit including Minneapolis and St. Paul looked good it was hardly plausible under the existing conditions. The schedule will be made out immediately and the final touches will be put on at the next meeting which will probably be held at St. Paul next Sunday."

Everything is flourishing with the local club and a number of players have been signed. A manager will be selected soon and the players will be asked to report in April. The new players that have sent back signed contracts are:

Victor Hagea, fast outfielder from Chicago.

Abe Deives of Chicago, an infielder.

Claude Brown, a big pitcher from Princeton, Ind. Brown comes well recommended and is a promising recruit.

William Schard, a left handed pitcher from Cleveland, Ohio.

Alva Knapp, an outfielder from Cordon, Ind.

Millard Spence of the north side.

ALBERT FLANGER'S HOUSE RUNS AWAY

A horse owned by Albert Flanger, a cream collector of Bostwick Valley, was frightened at midnight last night while hitched in front of Hotel Law and ran north dragging the cutter which was struck by Burlington freight train No. 77 at Grand Crossing. The cutter was demolished, but the horse escaped and ran into the new Milwaukee yards where it was bumped and bruised by a string of cars being kicked about by a switch engine. A switchman tied the animal up in Goddard's barn where it was recovered by its owner at 2 a. m., and returned home.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Feb. 22.—Three people are in the Cincinnati hospital as a result of a savage attack made by an unidentified old Navajo Indian chieftain who ran amuck in the Grand Central depot here last night.

The red man twice buried his knife in Meyer's abdomen and a third time as he lay on the ground. As the redskin was bending over his third victim, Geo. Boland, baggage room employe, felled him with a blow on the neck. The Indian was arrested and his victims rushed to the hospital.

CHILDREN'S COLDS AND THEIR RESULTS

COLDS NOT SO HARMLESS AS MANY PRESUME.

Some of the Most Serious Diseases Have Their Origin in a Common Cold.

Children are particularly susceptible to colds and often serious diseases of after life have their foundation in early colds.
A child catches cold but unless it is very severe no attention is given the matter. It has had colds before and always recovered and it is not until the little one alarms the household in the dead of night and scares
the mother into hysterics by having croup, that serious consequences are feared.

Another child catches cold and before it fully recovers takes another cold and perhaps before that is over contracts a fresh one. This succession of colds or even the sequest of the first attack causes inflammation of the mucous membrane, which was at first acute, to become chronic and the doctor will tell you that the child has chronic catarrh from which he will never fully recover.

Another child catches cold, which could easily have been cured by proper treatment, but being neglected develops the most fatal malady of childhood, pneumonia. The doctor is called and pronounces it lung fever, and if the child is lucky enough to live it has developed weak lungs, making it susceptible to all lung diseases.

Still another child catches cold, a stubborn cough is developed which lasts all winter, sapping the vitality and weakening the system, thereby paving the way for the germs of other diseases. Diphtheria, whooping cough, scarlet fever and similar diseases could often be avoided if each cold received proper attention.

Every one of these children could have been cured by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A few doses and the child's cold is gone. It is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail.
When given as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It also counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia, quickly dispelling all fear of that dangerous disease.

Don't wait until the child is sick and then send to the drug store for this remedy but keep it on hand ready for instant use when needed. It is perfectly harmless and should be kept in every home where there are young children.

JOHN I. BEGGS WANTS NEW LAW

TRACTION MAGNATE HAS CLE-

Seeks to Have Legislature Pass a Bill Permitting Electric Lines to Go Where They Please

(Fred L. Holmes.)

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 22.—(Special.)—A warm legislative battle will be waged over the bill presented to the legislature last week to permit the extension of suburban electric roads through cities without a franchise. Although the measure was only introduced last Tuesday, the members of the legislature are already receiving many letters from their constituents not to vote for such a measure. If this bill should pass it would allow an interurban line to operate on the streets of Madison, without a franchise from the city. The same would be true of other cities, towns and villages in the state.

It is understood that this bill was suggested by John I. Beggs of Milwaukee, who is planning a general system of electric lines through southern Wisconsin. This would wherever he might desire for the first section of the measure provides that the road can build "its railway to any point beyond any town adjoining the municipality from which it derived its franchise and for such purposes may lay and operate its railway, but not so as to obstruct common public travel thereon."

The complete plan aimed at is carried out in another bill which permits any extension necessary over streets to make suburban railway connections. It first provides that a city franchise must be obtained and then practically makes this city franchise, an interurban franchise.

The important section of this bill provides that "any such corporation which has such franchise for the operation of a regular street railway with any electric railway or interurban line and may operate interurban cars or trains over such street railway."

A concealed man thinks he knows more than any one else in the world which, after all, wouldn't be knowing enough to be concealed over.

Perhaps the sands of time contribute the grit with which a woman persistently hangs on to her favorite birthday.

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S NEGLECTED BIRTHPLACE

At top, Washington's tomb at Mount Vernon. The monument is a small duplicate of the larger Washington monument and marks the place where Washington was born. The tablet placed a few years ago marks the place of burial of Washington's father.

George Washington's home and tomb at Mount Vernon has become a Mecca for continual pilgrimages by the people for a grateful nation, but, oddly enough, the birthplace of the Father of Country, located some miles near the mouth of the Potomac, is neglected and unknown. Happily a movement has recently been inaugurated to restore and preserve Wakefield plantation, where Washington was born and where he spent his boy-hood and early manhood.

W. F. WOLFE ONE OF THE LOBBYISTS

(Fred L. Holmes.)

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 22.—(Special.)—The Wisconsin legislature has not been such a fertile field for the activities of lobbyists in recent years. A score of years ago the lobbysts came in such numbers to Madison during a session of the legislature that they often rented regular club rooms. In 1899 this state passed the anti-lobby law, which compels the registration in the secretary of state's office of all persons acting as agents or attorneys of firms, individuals and corporations before the legislature or legislative committees.
Municipalities are excepted from the operation of the law.

Thirteen lobbyists have registered with the secretary of state this year
as follows:

T. A. Barry, Madison, in the interest of certified public accountants.

Washington Bowie Baltimore, Md., representing Fidelity & Deposit company of Maryland for legislation relating to security concerns.

James T. Drought, Milwaukee, representing wholesale liquor dealers in matters of excise legislation.

T. F. Frawley, Eau Claire promoting the forming of the nineteenth judicial circuit in northern Wisconsin.

E. M. Hyzer, Milwaukee, representing the railway interests of the Northwestern road.

C. F. Lamb, Madison, representing Wisconsin implement and vehicle dealers. He also represents the mutual fire underwriters' association.

J. J. McGilivray, Black River Falls, representing the interests of the American Society of Equity, the farmers' organization.

S. M. Rosenkrantz, Milwaukee, for the interests of the traction, light and heating corporations of Milwaukee and Racine.

W. W. Stockhauser, Milwaukee, for Brotherhood of Railway Train-men.

John B. Sanborn, Madison, for Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road.

SOLONS TO SIFT BILLS TOMORROW

HARD WEEK AHEAD OF THE LEGISLATORS

SPECIAL COMMITTEES LIKELY

Will Consider All Bills On Subjects Of Income Tax, Highways and Industrial Insurance

(Fred L. Holmes.)

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 22.—(Special.)—Beginning with tomorrow the legislature will get down to the real work of considering bills and passing laws. The members have five days of business laid out for this week and will hold a session on Saturday and the following Monday.
This is a part of the program of the committee of both houses appointed to suggest plans to expedite business.

Another part of this committee plans will become public later in the week, when it is expected that a report will be rendered asking for the appointment of three special committees. These are to consider all of the bills that have been submitted on income tax, highway laws and industrial insurance.

To Draft New Bills.

The idea is to have a committee appointed of two from the senate and three from the house to take up the matter of an income tax. With the information which has already been gathered by the legislative reference library, supplemented by the foundations suggested in the bill presented to the legislature by Assemblyman Ingram of Durand, the committee will have something to start on at once. The same plan is to be followed with reference to the industrial insurance and highway problems.

One other problem promises to come before the legislature this week to attract attention. This is the investigation of the insurance department. Resolutions have been presented in each house in accordance with the message of the governor and these will be the subject of a hearing by the joint committee on finance, banks and insurance this week.

Bills Are Printed.

All of the bills introduced have been printed and during the next few weeks the hardest work of the legislature will be committee hearings. There are many to be found that predict now that the legislature will be the longest in the history of the state. Two problems appear.
One is the senatorial investigation and the other is the drafting of important laws.

Those who had been the most hopeful for a short session saw their hopes go glimmering last Thursday, when Gov. Davidson sent a special message to the legislature on the question of preserving the water powers of the state. While no action has yet been taken upon the matter and it was first believed the whole message might be referred to the forestry committee, the leaders in both houses are attempting to have a joint committee appointed to consider it. This question promises to attract more attention and consideration than the public utility law two years ago.

retail jewellers' association.

Roy P. Wilcox, Eau Claire, for Chippewa Valley Electric railway company.

W. E. Wolfe, La Crosse, is looking after the division of the sixth judicial circuit.

The "Forty Thieves."

Dr. Rueben G. Thwaites in a recent volume on "Wisconsin History" speaking of lobbying says that previous to 1853 there had been no indication of corruption on the part of the railway lobbyists. "The lobbysts rented a club room, called by them 'Monks Hall,' situated but a square distant from the capitol and here legislators were entertained upon what in those simple times thought to be a scale of splendor," says Dr. Thwaites in discussing some of the lobbyists gathered in Madison in 1853. "This band of conspirators were fond of facetiously alluding to themselves as 'The Monks of Monks' Hall," but their popular designation was "The Forty Thieves."
